- It is simpler to use bootstrap as all the contents are pre-existing and will only be used so that anyone uses it won't find it too challenging.
- Additionally, there's a good chance that you'll struggle to decide what colors to employ and how to launch the website. What combination of the two of them produces the lovely result? Which fonts to select to add appeal to the former.

I chose the name "SWEETEA" for my shop, which is the headline on this page. I feel that it is better to do this now that it is timely. The menus that are accessible if a consumer searches are also included on this page.

This page contains information about milktea, how it came from and what exactly milktea is.
